TEN CENTS A WEEK

COOL WEATHER PROMISED.

The Weather Bureau Predicts a Fall of Thirty Degrees Tonight.

LATEST FROM VERSAILLES, IND.

Believed That Two More Lynchings May Occur This Week—Victims' Relatives Arriving.

OTHER LATE TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Louisville, Sept. 16.—The weather bureau predicts a general cold wave tonight, with heavy showers and a fall of thirty degrees in temperature.

MAY BE MORE LYNCHINGS.

The Friends of the Versailles Victims Said to be Getting Ready for Vengeance.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 16.—It is believed here that two more lynchings will occur this week. The relatives of the victims are arriving and are preparing for vengeance. There may be serious trouble yet.

FARMERS AS AVENGERS.

Quick Work of the Indiana Mob—Five Lynched in a Bunch.

Governor Mount Says the Guilty Men Must Be Punished.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 16.—The most sensational tragedy ever known to Southern Indiana was enacted at an early hour yesterday morning, when five culprits confined in the county jail were lynched. No parallel of the event can be found, perhaps, in all the history of the state. The victims were Henry Shuter, Lyle Levi, William Jenkins, Bert Andrews and Clifford Gordon. They were confined in the county jail on the charge of burglary. They lived in the town of Osgood, and were supposed to belong to an organized band of thieves and highwaymen who had been robbing and terrorizing the citizens of Ripley county for a number of years, and whose headquarters were located in Osgood.

The men were in the jail awaiting trial for having attempted to rob the general store of Woolley Bros., at Osgood, postoffice last Saturday night. Two of the men, Gordon and Andrews, were captured at the time, after a running fight, and each had been severely wounded. The other prisoners were detained on the charge of having assisted and aided in the attempted burglary.

Yesterday morning about 12:45 o'clock Jailer Kenas was awakened by the ringing of the bell at the jail residence. On opening the door he was met by three masked men who shoved pistols in his face and demanded the keys to the jail cells. At this moment Deputy Jailer Black appeared on the scene, and he was also held in restraint till the keys were secured.

In the lower cells were confined Levi, Shuter and Jenkins, and there the visitors proceeded first. Levi's cell was first reached. He was awake, and, refusing to throw up his hands at the command of the leader, two pistol shots were heard and he fell to the floor shot through the heart. Shuter, lying on his cot, refused to get up, but begged for his life. A stroke upon the head from a heavy stick forever silenced him and he rolled to the floor. Jenkins' fate was similar, and the three bodies were carried to the main corridor and the lynchmen made their way upstairs, where Gordon and Andrews were found. They were already wounded, submitted and their hands were tied behind them. Ropes were placed around their necks and they were dragged down the stairway where their companions lay. Ropes were placed around the necks of all, and the order was given by the leader, "Pull on the ropes, boys, and hurry up." The command was obeyed and the bodies were dragged out into the street.

The entire program of action had evidently been carefully planned in its minutest detail. Not a word was spoken as the five victims were dragged through the main street of the village to an old elm tree near the outskirts. The prisoners not already dead were unconscious. As far as the mob knew all were dead. This cut no figure, however, for had they all been alive they would have been handled just as they were.

When the old elm tree was reached five ropes were dangling from the limbs ready and waiting for the victims. The mob had no time to wait, however, for each man who held the end of a rope at whose other end lay a dying or dead prisoner threw the rope over a limb, and dozens of hands seized the rope and pulled the body high into the air.

SILVER CRAZE COOLING.

Crowd at the Silver Camp Meeting at Springfield Rather Small.

Springfield, O. Sept. 15.—The silver camp-meeting arranged to continue here a week began today with a somewhat smaller assemblage than was expected. It is called a national free-silver camp-meeting. A number of silver speakers of note are engaged for each day. A great tent has been erected on the fair grounds for the speaking which will seat 6,000 and give accommodation for 20,000.

Rain in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Sept. 16.—Heavy rains are falling today, and the great drought seems to be broken.

THE SOUTHERN SCOURGE.

Yellow Fever Slowly Making Headway.

Refugees Fleeing from the South—More Cities Being Quarantined.

Only one death from yellow fever was reported yesterday, but the appearance of new cases at different points greatly increased the alarm in the Southern states. The Government expert has pronounced eleven of the forty suspicious cases at Edwards, Miss., to be yellow fever, and the city of Jackson, near by, is panic-stricken. The most stringent quarantine regulations exist throughout Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. Local traffic on the railroads in Mississippi has been almost suspended. Refugees are coming North in large numbers. The Gulf states are panic-stricken, despite the fact that as yet the cases are not numerous and the percentage of deaths very small.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 16.—All the fears of the citizens of Jackson in regard to the sickness prevalent at Edwards have been realized. Dr. Guibras, the government expert, has confirmed eleven cases of yellow fever, and says there are many suspects.

The state board has instructed Dr. Purnell to place a cordon of guards around Edwards at once. Report says that the disease has also appeared at Clinton and Smiths, Miss., and the discontinuance of trains on the Yazoo and Mississippi branch of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road.

Yazoo City, Miss., has issued orders for a shotgun quarantine to be enforced. No trains are allowed to stop except to exchange mails at the quarantine station. No passengers are allowed to leave the trains at all, and all mail and express must be fumigated. Guards armed to the teeth are placed along the county boundaries, but in spite of these rigid rules several have managed to get in, some even coming from infected districts.

Two drummers who came Monday were taken yesterday and put in quarantine.

MUST BE BROUGHT TO JUSTICE.

Governor Mount Expresses Himself Fully on the Versailles Lynching.

Indianapolis, Sept. 16.—When Governor Mount received information that five men had been lynched in Indiana, he immediately sent the following message to the sheriff of Ripley county:

"To the Sheriff of Ripley County, Versailles, Ind.: Wire me at once particulars of lynching reported to have occurred in your county. I further direct that you proceed, with all the power you can command, to bring to justice all parties participating in the murder of the five men alleged to have been lynched. Such lawlessness is intolerable, and all the powers of the state, if necessary, will be vigorously employed for the arrest and punishment of all parties implicated. JAMES A. MOUNT, Governor."

The governor was very much wrought up and indignant that the state should spoil so beautiful a record. His business methods ought to be good assurance that the men who committed the outrage will be, as he says, brought to justice with the least possible delay.

DIED AMONG STRANGERS.

J. W. Burns, a R. R. Engineer, Succumbs to Typhoid.

J. W. Burns, aged 45, died of typhoid-malaria fever on a shanty boat below the iron furnace this morning, after about a month's illness.

The deceased had a wife and brother here, the latter being Floyd Burns, of Mt. Sterling, Ky. The home of the victim was Ranoke, Va., and by occupation he was a railroad engineer. He was coming down the river on his houseboat when the fatal illness overtook him.

The remains were buried at Oak Grove at 4 o'clock this afternoon. His boat is now moored at the foot of Tennessee street.

ARGUMENTS HEARD.

McGill Case Goes to the Jury Today.

GOOD SPEECHES ON BOTH SIDES.

McGill Looked Stolidly on and Seemed Indifferent.

VERDICT AWAITED WITH INTEREST.

The evidence in the McGill case was concluded in the circuit court yesterday afternoon late, and by this time tomorrow McGill will probably know his fate. There were numerous other witnesses to hear, but as this was deemed inexpedient and vain, they were not called.

Arguments began this forenoon, when County Attorney Houser, for an hour and a half, made an eloquent appeal to the jury to avenge the alleged crime.

Attorney C. K. Wheeler, for the defense, spoke for an hour and fifty minutes, and made a splendid argument in behalf of the defendant.

COBB'S BRIGADE.

Big Preparations for a Reunion at Kuttawa.

Capt. W. J. Stone Greatly Interested in the Affair.

hold a reunion of Cobb's famous First Kentucky battery at Kuttawa some time soon. Capt. W. J. Stone's old company will participate, and also Capt. W. H. Green's. It is proposed to make this one of the most interesting old soldiers' gatherings ever held in the state. Under the old beech at the Mint Springs, the now scattered veterans organized as infantry under Gen. H. B. Lyon thirty-six years ago. On the 4th of July, 1861, the flower of Lyon county set out for Camp Boone.

At Bowling Green the company was organized into the First Kentucky battery, the first engagement being on the bloody field of Shiloh. After Gen. Lyon's promotion as colonel of the Eighth Kentucky, Robertson Cobb, now a resident of Texas, was given command of the battery, which retained his name to the end of the war. Capt. Cobb still retains the battle-blackened colors of the old battery, and the battle-bleached emblem of many a bloody field will be brought from Texas and hung about the old beech, which still stands a sturdy monument of the past. Gen. Lyon, who first organized and equipped the company, now resides at Edville, and is interesting himself in the reunion.

Cobb's First battery is famous throughout the country, and when the reunion is held many local veterans, as well as many other citizens, may be counted on to attend.

MOSSAT MURRAY

Over the County Judgeship Vacancy.

Quarterly court was called Tuesday at Murray and adjourned sine die because of the death of the county judge, making a vacancy and depriving the court of a presiding officer. There was some question as to the legality of the court electing a special judge. The lawyers differed on the point so to make sure there was no court held. Attorney Coleman contended that a special judge could be elected under the statute giving the bar authority to elect from any cause of the regular judge's failure to attend for preside. Messrs. Cook, Linn and Holt argued that there was no regular judge, but a vacancy, and hence no absence. According to their ideas the law failed to provide for the election of a special judge in this particular instance. Mr. Coleman insisted that the words "from any cause" covered the case.

"SHADOWS OF A GREAT CITY"

At Morton's Opera House Next Wednesday Night.

George Klimt and Alma Hearn supported by a strong company will open at Morton's opera house Monday night for a six nights engagement at popular prices. The company is first-class in every particular and the patrons of Morton's opera house are promised some clever performances next week at 1, 10, 20 and 30 cents admission. That famous comedy drama "Shadows of a Great City" will be presented Monday night to which ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by one paid thirty cent ticket. Special scenery is carried for each production and the latest songs and dances will be introduced.

FORMER DEMOCRATIC LEADER

Nominated By the Republicans For Councilman at Princeton.

The Republicans met in convention at Princeton Wednesday and nominated Ben Kaufman, formerly of Louisville, for Mayor of Princeton, and the following ticket for councilmen: P. J. Foerg, William Kirk, John C. Gates, W. H. Rich and R. R. Pickering. A great deal of significance is attached to the nomination of Mr. Pickering, as he has been a leader of the Democratic party in this county for twenty years, and refused less than two months ago to allow his name on the joint silver ticket. He was a candidate for sheriff before the silverite primary, and this action is taken by his friends as an evidence that his views on the money question have undergone a radical change.

CANDIDATE FOR CORONER.

Mr. George Phelps Wants to Fill the Vacancy on the Democratic Ticket.

The death of undertaker Charles Roth leaves a vacancy on the Democratic ticket, as he was the regular nominee for coroner of the county. The committee will shortly be called to fill the vacancy.

Mr. George Phelps, who was recently a candidate for magistrate, is a candidate and today is passing a petition asking that his name be substituted on the ticket for that of Mr. Roth.

ROBINSON-FRANKLIN HOLIDAY.

The Coming of the Greatest Shows On Earth—A Real Holiday.

Every one is on the "qui vive" over the fact that the great Robinson and Franklin Bros.' Shows are coming to Paducah September 23.

This biggest of all big shows has everywhere met with the most enthusiastic reception, and the press of other cities do not hesitate in proclaiming it the most wonderful exhibition ever seen under canvas. In point of novelty or in the number of features, no other amusement enterprise can even approach it. Its mass of spectacular and sensational big shows of the world. It requires four massive trains of especially constructed cars to transport it from town to town, four of the most thoroughly equipped and handsomely decorated advertising cars ever built are brought into service to herald its coming, and more than one thousand people employed, besides three hundred of the finest horses ever owned by any amusement institution. There are three rings, two elevated stages and a quarter mile hippodrome track all going at one time during the performance. The zoological display contains more rare wild beasts than any other two shows and the largest water-proof tents ever constructed are required to properly give this massive entertainment and accommodate the vast audiences which daily throng to see the many wonders contained in these shows that can be seen nowhere else on earth.

PICKENS, TOO, IS FREE.

The Third of the U. S. Prisoners Is Released.

Harve Pickens, colored, the third of the prisoners arrested last week at Marion, Crittenden county, for alleged violation of revenue laws, was tried before Commissioner Puryear this afternoon and acquitted.

It appears that all three of the prisoners had only purchased whisky for other prisoners, who gave them the money. The court was constrained to decide that this was not selling it. A druggist or two, and perhaps others, however, at Marion, are likely to get into trouble as a result of the prisoners' evidence.

WOUND RE-OPENED.

Will Karnes Has Misfortune Number Two.

Will Karnes, who split his knee cap with an axe last week while at work on Mr. L. S. DuBois' house in the West End, was severely hurt again yesterday by falling down and reopening the wound.

He was delirious nearly all day as a result, and today suffered considerably.

STATE OF LETHARGY.

The Peculiar Condition of Joe Machen, Colored.

A son of Joe Machen, colored, of near Fifth and Jackson streets, has suddenly been seized by a lethargy which it seems impossible to shake off. The child first became afflicted Sunday, and cannot be kept awake, and cannot be kept awake. Machen, is employed by the Langstaff-Orm Manufacturing Company.

Rapidly growing to a close the twentieth century will go down into future ages as possibly the most fruitful in its discoveries and inventions benefiting mankind in all history.

Among the most wonderful products of the century is Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World, as the historic representation of the great progress of this prolific age.

A PITIFUL SIGHT.

Rhoda Bowen Sent to Graves County.

Rhoda Bowen, who has been in the city hospital suffering from dropsy of the feet and a complication of ills, was sent to Pryorsburg at noon today.

The woman is unable to walk without support, and is a pitiful object to behold. In addition to her physical condition, the woman's mind has been ruined by excessive use of opiates.

As she was put aboard the train the spectacle elicited many remarks of sympathy and surprise from bystanders.

ANOTHER VICTIM

Of the "Rough on Rats" Poison.

Henry Miller, the Father, Dies From His Illness.

Henry Miller, the Metropolis man who partook of "rough on rats" placed in the breakfast by his demoted daughter a week or two ago, died last night, according to reports which reached the city this morning.

One of Miller's children died soon after eating the food, and Miller's condition was precarious. He lingered until yesterday and then succumbed.

PADUCAH ARCHITECT

Drawing the Plans for Mayfield Improvements.

Mr. Brinton Davis, of Paducah, is drawing the plans for the four brick business rooms on West Broadway, says the Mayfield "Monitor." The corner room is to be three stories in height and the others two, and the building is to be up-to-date in every respect. Mr. Summerville has begun work on his next to these. This is also to be two stories high and of modern style. Next to this is Hon. R. E. Johnston's building, on which work will soon begin. Never within her history has Mayfield been making so many improvements in the way of building as at present. Mr. J. T. Webb, it is learned, will erect brick business houses on his corner lot on Broadway, and Mr. Will Sisson will build a large brick livery stable just south of the Presbyterian church.

CALED MEETING

Of the School Board for Tonight.

The school board meets tonight in called session to straighten out matters relative to the overflowing schools. There are some grades too full and a more equal apportionment will have to be made.

The matter of holding school only half a day until hot weather ceases will probably not come up. If it does, it is likely from what has been heard that the board will decline to make such a change, even for a short time.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Commonwealth's Attorney.
Sam Houston is a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for the Second Judicial district composed of St. Francis and Marshall counties at the November election.

The suggestion that the public schools be run on half time during the rest of this heated term is a good one.

The promise has been made that the city officials will do all they can to protect the city. A flushing of the gutters would be a good start.

THE Benton "Tribune" says: "Whenever a party begins to throw down the fence and admits all outsiders, then they injure the party." And then the "Tribune" draws this fine distinction by adding, "We are for free silver, but not for Populism." Translated into plain English, this means, "We want all of the Populist votes, but the Democrats must hold all the offices."

With the month of September comes an awakening in the political campaigns in the various states and an increased interest in prospective results. In Ohio, Iowa, Nebraska, Kentucky, Maryland, New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts there are interesting elections. Important in one way or another in their relation to national politics. In Ohio a senator is to be elected by the legislature to be chosen; in Iowa there is to be chosen a portion of the legislature which will two years hence elect a successor to Senator Smith; in New Jersey a part of the legislature which elects a successor to Senator Smith is to be chosen; in New York the political complexion of Greater New York City for an indefinite term is to be determined; in Maryland a legislature which is to select a successor to Senator Gorman will be elected, while in Nebraska and Kentucky portions of the state tickets and one branch of the legislatures is to be elected in full and a part of the other branch.

Some of those Democratic candidates who put their announcement cards into the "Register" before the last two primaries are wondering why that paper does not publish the city and county tickets. That sheet had better take down its claim to being the only Democratic paper in the city or publish the Democratic tickets. Of course it won't help those tickets any to be run in the "Register," but the Democrats in Paducah out of curiosity would like to know what side of the fence the poor old "Register" is going to flop to. Of all the pitiable objects in the world, a newspaper without a policy and an editor afraid of his shadow are the most noticeable. This total lack of principle and obvious cowardice are what is cutting down the "Register's" subscription list and is causing the advertisers to drop out.

DIPLOMATIC TITLES.

The current number of the "Illustrated American" has an interesting article on the differences in titles of our diplomatic representatives abroad.

In the diplomatic service of the United States, Ambassadors are now accredited to Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy, and our Government in turn receives Ambassadors from these four nations. Prior to 1893, no diplomatic agent of higher rank than that of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary (which latter term generally means less than its derivation implies) ever represented the United States in foreign countries. Minister-resident is the rank customary.

The terms Ambassador, Minister and Envoy are often used rather indiscriminately. There is excuse for this vagueness, as it is doubtful whether the distinctions have yet been laid down with final and absolute clearness. The following divisions of diplomatic agents into four classes is, however, generally accepted: (1) Ambassadors, legates and nuncios; (2) Ministers, Envoys and others accredited to sovereigns; (3) Resident Ministers; (4) Charges d'Affaires.

Ambassadors represent the person of their sovereign and are received with almost equal dignity to that which would be accorded him. Ministers, in contradistinction, are regarded as representing their sovereign in his affairs rather than in his person. The Ministers resident deal usually with the State Department, and not with the person of the ruler of the foreign country. Charges d'Affaires act in the absence of their Ministers, and are therefore only what may be termed substituted representatives.

From the Owsboro Inquirer.

A merchant said to an inquirer: "I am a believer in the free coinage of silver, but I am tired of the persistent efforts of our papers to ruin the country. There is not one of them that does not attempt to belittle the signs of improvement in business, and one would think they prefer a continuation of hard times to the most bountiful prosperity under the gold standard. I know that sentiment has a great deal to do with business, and if everybody talks hard times we shall have hard times. On the contrary, if everybody is hopeful times will soon improve, whatever the standard. As I say, I am for free silver, but I do not read a single one of my papers that does not disgust me." This sentiment is on the increase among business men, and not a few farmers are talking the same way. The result will be that when better times come, as come they will, the free silver papers will be utterly discredited, and the present indulgence of their spleen over their defeat will cost them dearly.

The seventy-seventh annual session of the Kentucky Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will convene at Mt. Sterling today.

After a five-months' trial Mr. Nettie B. Craven has lost the suit to secure the title to certain property of the Fair estate.

In attempting to answer Mr. Hindman at Elkton Monday, Congressman Rhea had a time of it trying to convince the audience of farmers that high wheat, high corn, high hogs and active markets are really not such blessings as they were commonly described by free-silver orators last year. The public looks expectantly each of the free-silver leaders, as they successively take the stump to

WANT SIDE TRACKS.

Do a Great Many of the Paducah Merchants.

Improvements Still Being Made on the Illinois Central.

Civil Engineer E. H. Bowser, of the I. C. came down this morning from Louisville. He reports the principal work on the system is being done at Louisville.

A large side track is being built at Goff's ninety-three miles out of Louisville, and there are many other improvements in progress.

Mr. Bowser states that many merchants here have applied to the company for side tracks, or spurs, to their business houses from the river front track, which shows that they appreciate the company's enterprise.

Too Ill to Work.

Abe Lynch, a mill worker of Shawneetown, Ill., was found on the wharf boat last night very ill of malaria. THE DAY OF DAYS.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5.

This is called the day of days because it is upon that day that Paducah will have its first opportunity to see the most famous exhibition the world has ever known; as well known in Europe as in America: the first public exhibition ever attended by Queen Victoria during her widowhood; the only public exhibition and the first public event of any sort to call together in one assemblage over 300 members of the royal families of Europe—an absolute historical fact: the only American exhibition that has ever exhibited in nearly all the capitals of Europe, including London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Madrid and Rome.
It is the same in every detail as the great exhibition which spent an entire season at Earl's court, London; at the Exposition Universelle, at Paris, and man for man and horse for horse the same exhibition which successfully vied with the Columbian World's Fair at Chicago in '93 for public popularity.

Nay. It is even more—bigger, greater, grander, more comprehensive. All the features it possessed that will be brought to Paducah and many more which it did not have then.
It is the same great exhibition which spent the entire season of 1894 at Ambrose park, Brooklyn; the season of '95 in the principal cities of the east and south, and the season of '96 in the principal cities of the west.
It is the same exhibition which began its season of 1897 at Brooklyn and after two weeks there went across the river to Madison Square Garden, New York City, where for three weeks it actually turned away thousands of persons every day and broke all records for attendance and receipts in the world's history of amusements. Another fact.
It is the same great exhibition to which New York's great newspapers gave over 200 columns of notices, stories and illustrations in three weeks' time—an entirely unprecedented honor.

It is the same exhibition and it is still led by that great American citizen, scout and soldier, Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). He is the same scout who gallantly served under Kentucky's great soldier, whose death alone, perhaps, prevented his name from being first on the scroll of martial fame, the still and ever lamented Gen. Albert Sydney Johnston; the same scout whose bravery, heroism and invaluable services to his country have been attested by every general in the regular army of the United States during the past thirty-five years.

He is the same citizen, born in an humble farm house on the banks of the Mississippi, his scant scholastic education in a country school house, who, before his teens, was in the saddle in his country's service; who fairly stepped from the camp of the hunter, the tepee of the Indian, the bivouac of the soldier, into the saloons of Europe—in which for years he was ever a welcome guest; the modest gentleman whose innate dignity and graceful bearing and physical perfection amazed all Europe, which supposed such attributes could come only from generations of gentle birth and aristocratic associations.

It is this same true soldier and gentleman who pledges his honor to the people of Paducah that not only are all the foregoing statements about his exhibition simple truth, but also that he will be here in Paducah in person and participate in both the afternoon and evening exhibitions.

This will be the last chance Kentuckians will have of seeing this exhibition this season. Tuesday, October 5, is the day. The exhibition will be in St. Louis all the week before, and you are most cordially invited to see the St. Louis papers of Tuesday, September 25, and learn from them the true character of this great exhibition. From St. Louis it goes to Memphis on Monday; Paducah, Tuesday; Union City, Wednesday; Nashville, Thursday; Chattanooga, Friday; Atlanta, Ga., Saturday. Thence east and north.

Remember, please, this is not a circus. It is nothing like a circus. It has nothing in common with a circus save men and horses. The circus you have with you always. Sometimes the circus is big and worthy; oftener it is little and cheap; in name, cheap in character, cheap in price—dear at any price. They depend for their existence upon the gaudy and supposed ignorance of people from the country. They hope to entice them out of their money by exaggeration and skillful deceit. The old cry, "Prices reduced for this day only," is an old "gag," but they think they can make it win. When they say—which they don't—"Raised to 25 cents," they come much nearer the truth. They never charge more.

An apology is really due the public for this mere allusion to such concerns and their methods, but it really does seem too bad to have innocent and ignorant persons gulled out of their only opportunity to see the exhibition which moved the great American editor, Murat Halstead, to say editorially in the Brooklyn "Standard-Union" of May 4, 1897, "It is somebody's crime if all the children do not see it."
Be reminded once more that the day of days will be

A Precinct Error.
In the change of voting precincts, detailed in County Clerk Graham's circular, it is stated that one of the city precincts is "the brick building at Ninth and Clay." There is no brick building there, and the one at Tenth and Clay is probably the building meant.

Tax Notice.
This is the last month you have to pay your state and county taxes. Don't fail to attend to this, as I will be compelled to enforce the penalty after Sept. 30. R. G. HOLLAND, s/w Sheriff McCracken County.

If the ladies wish to see a carefully selected line of millinery at reasonable prices they should call on Miss Zula Cobbs & Co. at 217 Broadway, next door to E. H. Rudy & Ph. 15-1

There is coming one day when every body should take at least a half holiday. That day will be Buffalo Bill, day, or Oct. 5. It is only once or twice in a lifetime when the chance is offered to see such an exhibition as the hero-scout, hunter and soldier as Col. W. F. Cody and his Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World. It may be his last visit to this city, as Europe is demanding his return to that continent.

Nearly Ready for Business.
The Delicatessen will be opened to the public about Saturday. It has been furnished in the most elegant style, and nothing will be spared to make it one of the most complete and popular resorts in the city. Mr. Charles E. Curtis, the well known young drummer, is the proprietor, but Mr. Charles Hawkins will be in charge of it.
